

WAVER INFORMATION/RIGHT TO OBJECT

Please do not return this form to the school unless you would like to object to any of the activities listed below.

Angelus Academy may produce or participate in videotape, audio recording, Internet (i.e. Web site) or still photograph productions that may involve the use of the student’s names, likenesses, or voices. Such productions maybe used for educational and/or school marketing purposes and may be copied or copyrighted with the school retaining any and all rights to such productions.

You have the right to object to the use of your child’s name, picture or voice in these productions and may do so by completing the form below and returning it to the principal of Angelus Academy. If the form is not returned, we will assume that you waive your right to object.
